Part X, Line 2:

IGF's activities are generally exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Since IGF is exempt from federal and state income tax liability, no provision is made for current or deferred income tax expense. IGF is not a private foundation. Management has determined that IGF is not subject to unrelated business income tax. Management is not aware of any transactions that would impact IGF's tax-exempt status.

IGF follows the guidance of the Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, Accounting for Income Taxes, related to uncertainties in income taxes, which prescribes a threshold of more likely than not for recognition and derecognition of positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For the year ended December 31, 2025, management of IGF is not aware of any material uncertain tax positions.

All tax-exempt entities are subject to review and audit by federal, state, and other applicable agencies. Such agencies may review the taxability of unrelated business income, or the qualification of the tax-exempt entity under the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state statutes. For federal tax purposes, the tax returns remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of those returns.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:
community". This mission may have few words, but the very essence of achieving it means dismantling systems that infringe on the capacity of Black, Indigenous, and multi-racial youth to be holistically well through collective, communal measures of their choosing. Our vision is a community where the healing of intergenerational, population level trauma is tackled at the deepest level so that Black youth can live holistically well and grow into their highest potential in their communities.

990 is sent electronically to all board members and is reviewed at last quarterly meeting of the year, which is held in December. The Board Chair and ED review the 990 once complete and make recommendations for any needed changes to the full board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
We have a conflict of interest policy and process that we use with our Board during each meeting. Our employees are asked to reveal any conflicts of interest that may arise during weekly staff meetings.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a:
IGF works with its HR partner MACC (Metropolitan Alliance of Connected Communities) to review and establish employee compensation. A formal IGF "compensation philosophy" was created in 2025. IGF and MACC use job titles and descriptions from Minnesota based nonprofits as a guide to create and align positions as well as determine a salary range for the position. This analysis and revenue projections are utilized to present the IGF Board with compensation options for the upcoming fiscal year in December. The Board reviews the recommended compensation options when voting on the following year's budget. Annual compensation increases are also subject to Board vote and a positive performance review, which is conducted by the Board for the ED or by the employee's direct supervisor for all other staff.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:
Financial documents, including the Form 990, are found on IGF's website under <https://www.irgrace.org/annualreports>. Other governing documents, including the conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available to the public upon request either electronically or as a hard copy.
